

Re: Building of communication towers. These towers will very possibly increase bird mortality. Research needs to be done to assess how the building of these towers will impact bird life.